Students Probe, Seek To Know Why

East Catholic High School, after blowing out its very first birthday candle, is now walking steadily on its own.

With the new principal, Sister Mary Conrad, ECH is prudently guided to fulfill its dream. That dream is—to educate totally every student who is to walk down the aisle to graduation.

*"To fight the unbeatable foe,
To run where the brave dare to go;
To love pure and chaste from afar
To reach—the unreachable star...
To celebrate life!*

"Have you got the spirit?" "Yeah Man!" J.V. Cheerleaders: Deborah Sinclair, Patricia Dennis (top), Natalie Anderson, Mary Carol Nantais lead the Pep Club in a peppy cheer.

ACTIVITIES

We Celebrate Life by

The rap-tap of the gavel,
As to order clubs come.
The plotting and planning,
For the coming year's prom.
The snip-snap of fingers,
With the clip-clap of feet.
The minis in motion.
The bells looking neat.

'Paris in Autumn' Homecoming Theme

ABOVE: Carrying on an old tradition, Co-Captains Bill Habib and Grilling Perry crown Dawn Elles and present her with a bouquet of roses.

BELOW: Queen Dawn and her court: Christine Folse, Sandra Peters, Paggette Smith, Debbie June, Gail Butkus, Vickie Simpson participate in the Homecoming festivities at half-time.

Dawn Gets Crown

During half-time of the Green Berets' exciting game versus "Tuetons" of St. Anthony High, beautiful Dawn Elles in a royal, red velvet gown was proclaimed Queen of the 1968 Homecoming.

Queen Dawn's attendants were: Seniors, Debbie June, Christine Folse, and Pagette Smith; Junior, Sandra Peters; Sophomore, Gail Butkus; Freshman, Vickie Simpson.

"An Autumn in Paris" transformed ECH auditorium into a veritable Parisian setting for the crowning ceremony which climaxed the evening. Stage, window, booths, cafe were artistically constructed for the gala fun-filled night.

At the roll of the drums, Queen Dawn and her court proceeded to their places on the stage where the joyous presentation was made.

Jimmy Yokum and his orchestra furnished the music for the charming event.

Dawn stops to adjust her crown as she begins her reign as East Catholic's 1968 Homecoming Queen.

SENIORS

*We Celebrate Life
by*

The blessings of class rings,
The donning of gowns.
The cheese-cheese for pictures,
To sign and make rounds.
The count-down of classes,
As Graduation draws near.
With presents and practice,
To end Senior Year.

Rings, Impossible Dream Comes True

Even though this may be said to be a woman's world; nevertheless, Senior men are the first to don the 1969 cap and gown. Larry Gray, Stanley Pickett, Allen Favenyesi, Nancy Cecacci, Susan Stieber, Barbara Davis, Paggette Smith, Paul Gotelaere.

Toe-heel; toe-heel - "Pomp and Circumstance" gets Mary Ann Gabriel, Austelle Sands, Debbie June, Eugene Coxx, Ginger Wilburn, Larry Field, Rosemary Puckett, Vincent Oliver into marching step for the on-coming commencement day.

This picture may be a bit amusingly serious; however, it is just Msgr. Vincent Howard bestowing the sacramental blessing of the Church upon the 1969 class rings of Linda Bugliesi, Senior Secretary, Dennis Ray, Class President.

With rings as their symbol and this as their quest, Seniors: Jennifer Milobowski, Cathy Ringle, Kathy Maiale, Dawn Elles, Vincent Oliver, Carlos Smith, Carl Bulgarelli, Michael Zielicki, pledge to reach the unreachable star; no matter how hopeless, no matter how far.

Big Deal.

You've just been graduated from high school. Now what?
College? Business School? Job hunting? It's your life. And your world, too. Make a big deal out of it.

Congratulations! And good luck!

To Mike,

You're one guy I'll never ~~forget~~ ^{FORGET}. I don't know how to explain about last night but I'll try. You see, I didn't think you had anything planned for this Friday. See, can't I just make my own plans without you getting mad at me. Holy cow, I want to go out with you but I don't think my parents would have let me. It never fails, every time I go out with my girl friends and it interferes with your plans you start thinking I don't want to go out with you. You always start thinking that. I don't know why. You don't believe me when I said I care for you. So, now I just give up trying to explain things to you. You never try to understand. I just let you say what you want and let you believe what you want because it doesn't any good for me to explain. Ok well.

Without you, I don't think this year could have been complete. I really do mean it. I have never had a crush, this is I did in this year. You might have a bad temper but deep down you're all heart. And I care every bit of it.

You're the guy that guy who thought that I was beautiful. He told me and said to my face that I was really pretty. You don't even see if I am fat. I try not to eat, but I can't help it. It's been a life time hobby. I wish all guys were like you, but just the same I think you're the best. I wouldn't want you changed. It would really ruin you.

I know one thing I'm sure I'll never forget. That is the prom. I thoroughly enjoyed going with you. If I ever go to a Prom again, I don't think I would enjoy it as much as I did when I went with you. But one thing bothers me. The night happened last night. You might start to think that all I wanted to do was just go to the prom with you. But it wasn't. I will want to go out with you. Please believe this and understand.
I will always remember you. No guy has respected me as you did. I will always cherish, in my heart, your kindness and love. I hope you will cherish mine. I will always love Mike Duran.
You're my mountain.

Love,
Duran, 20 8 8.

I'll
be in a always here.

Mike
To a crazy and amazing guy like I said I front & said I it twice and I surely won't be good and it again.

Mike, I'll always remember RETREAT
2-11, and all the other
SHXT we've been through.
Keep growing your beard and you'll make something of your life - 10 to 20 years
good luck on your own

James Raymond Chandler
